

Department of Geography and Program in Planning
University of Toronto

Open House for Prospective Graduate Students

November 25, 2011

Sidney Smith Hall, 100 St. George Street, Toronto

Events will include introductions to our Geography (MA, MSc and PhD), Planning (MSc and PhD) and Urban Design (MUDS) programs, a Q&A session, a tour of facilities, and an opportunity to meet with current graduate students who will discuss their work and the range of research opportunities in the department.

We hope this Open House will help prospective applicants better understand the program offerings and the application process. If you are planning to attend, you may also wish to consider contacting faculty members with related research interests in advance to arrange one-on-one meetings.

11:00 am	Program Introductions and Q&A Session (Room 1078, Main floor)
12:00 pm	Lunch (5th Floor Lounge)
1:00 pm	Tour with Current Students

Please RSVP by 10:00 am on November 24 to geograd@geog.utoronto.ca
In your email, please indicate your program(s) of interest.
